

NOT SLEEPING IN YOUR ARMS
w/m Andrea Wolper

There's a simple little fact
That you should know about me
Listen, and we'll get along just fine
So stay at your end of the telephone
It's no big deal, but I sleep better alone

But it was lovely
Not Sleeping In Your Arms
While you were drifting off in dreamland
I was wand'ring through the list
Of your charms
And it was lovely Not Sleeping in Your Arms

There are still so many facts
That I don't know about you
And I wonder why our pathways intertwine
I should stay at my end of the telephone
'Cause like I told you before, I sleep better alone

But it was lovely
Not Sleeping In Your Arms
You held me sweetly like a baby
While I floated on the wave
Of your charms
And it was lovely Not Sleeping in Your Arms

© Andrea Wolper 2001, BMI Cisluna Music

www.AndreaWolper.com