

John Shea, Music Director for 95.9 WATD radio
Marshfield/Boston, MA—Oct. 2011

“When you think of current country music in Massachusetts names like Jo Dee Messina and Ashley Gearing might come to mind, but here’s one more to add to that list—Ashley Jordan.

The 19 year old (yes—I said 19!) just completed her second full length CD entitled “Liquid Words”. 12 of the 14 tracks on the disc are penned by her and are in essence her diary set to music— simple songs of love and enjoying life to complex compositions of sadness and heartbreak flow together seamlessly. The production should also be noted—listening you forget she’s a teenager from Bean-Town and imagine more of a veteran singer-songwriter backed by Nashville’s best.

Get yourself a copy of Liquid Words now and you too can say you knew Ashley when...”