

Metronome Madness

Ashley Jordan releases
new CD Liquid Words October 3rd

this" (by the Liverpool Echo). Soon, fans will be able to experience the ultimate Pink Floyd experience in North America. www.aussiefloyd.com. Catch them live November 2nd when they come to the Wang Theater in Boston. Nineteen-year-old singer/songwriter Ashley Jordan will release her second CD on Oct. 3rd, 2011. The pop/country album entitled Liquid Words was produced by Don Hooper of Juke Village Records. Fourteen songs are included on the album, with 11 original songs written by Ashley, and one co-written with Don Hooper. Also included on the album is the cover song "Stealing Kisses" (written by Lori McKenna) and the song "It's That Smile," written especially for Ashley by the VanPassel Brothers of Belgium (famous for writing #1 hit "You Are Not Alone"). In addition to Ashley's vocals and guitar, contributions were made to Liquid Words by a talented group of musicians: Troy Engle (electric guitar, fiddle, banjo, pedal steel, mandolin), Don Hooper (bass, mandolin, guitar, harmonies), Steve Beckwith (guitar), Adam Bergeron (piano), John Loud (drums), Kristen Miller (cello), and Kim Jennings (vocal harmony). The CD release concert for Liquid Words is scheduled for October 9, 2011 at 4:30 PM at Club Passim in Cambridge, MA. Ashley will play a selection of songs from the new CD and will be backed by her band: Adam Bergeron on piano, Steve Beckwith on guitar, Don Hooper on bass, John Loud on drums, Karen Sarkisian on pedal steel, Steve Latanision on mandolin & fiddle and Kim Jennings on vocals. For more information go to: www.AshleyJordanMusic.com. There are actors who can sing, and singers who can act and