

Heaven Again

Swollen wallet, stolen hands
Nobody anywhere understands won a blankety blank chequebook and pen will I have to say it again

Memories are flooding out of my ears
Time has turned my eyes into tears
I wonder why, if, how and when I'll get back into heaven again

Never never get back into heaven again
Heaven again, heaven again
I sold my ticket to my only friend
Now I'll never ever get back into heaven again

Drawn blank face in a window frame
A broken window spoke my name
Forgot how to work but not how to spend
How is it going to - end

Hug me honey til i cannot breathe
Tug me harder, make me heave
Kiss me baby, kiss me quick
I think I'm gonna be sick

So i'll pawn this heart of gold
`For even a scarecrow got more soul
How many times must you count to ten
To get back into heaven again

Never never get back into heaven again
Heaven again, heaven again
Purgatory's only round the bend
Never never get back into hea-ven

Birds are choking, bees won't sting
Words won't account for everything
Frogs are a-flying outa my throat
Who kid-napped my goat?

All my pigs came down with flu
Hypochondria, nothing new
I'm not sad, it's the lachrymogene
I'll never get to heaven again

Never never get back into heaven again
Heaven again, heaven again
The duke of york and ten thousand men
Never ever get back into heaven again
Heaven heaven heaven again, again, heaven, etc
