Cathy-Anne McClintock Named One Of Music Connection's Hot 100 Unsigned Bands & Artists

Emerging country/americana/folk singer-songwriter Cathy-Anne McClintock has had an exciting year making a splash around the world since the release of her self-titled debut album earlier this year and all of her hard work is not going unnoticed. Music Connection magazine recently named McClintock one of the Hot 100 Unsigned Bands & Artists of the year (December 2009 issue). "Very cool! With the huge number of talented unsigned acts out there it's a much appreciated, though humbling compliment to be considered in the top 100," responds McClintock. McClintock's latest single "Crazy 'Bout You" recently received a Hollywood Music in Media Award nomination. Over the summer, it heated up the Country and Hot AC charts in Canada and Europe, and was featured as the Free Track Of The Week on Puretracks Canada. McClintock will kick-off December as a part of the Indie Thursday Showcase Series at the Renaissance Hotel in Hollywood, CA on the 3rd. This unique and intimate event has been creating a buzz within the artist community of Los Angeles. Show time is 7:30 p.m. and it is free for all ages. Also performing are Sofia Draco, Petree, Autumn Kramer, Brightmillion and Steve Cooke. Since moving to Southern California to focus on her solo career several years ago, she established herself as a formidable performer with gigs at hotspots like Genghis Cohen, The Mint, Kulaks, Hallenbecks and various special events, including Laguna Beach's Pageant of the Masters, Sunset Serenade Series, Far West Folk Alliance, Canadian Music Week and the popular folk series The Living Tradition. At a particularly memorable gig at the House of Blues on Sunset, she opened for Canadian Celtic rockers Great Big Sea for an audience comprised of fellow Canadians; one of the highlights was Russell Crowe sitting in and singing a few Johnny Cash tunes with the band. McClintock's emergence as a solo artist is simply the latest triumph in a career that would make anyone want to "live like that." Shortly after the Vancouver born and raised performer and her older sister Trisha Gagnon formed their bluegrass band Tumbleweed in the 90s, they played their first show on a slate in British Columbia with superstars Dolly Parton and Dwight Yoakam at Music 91, a government sponsored road show designed to boost tourism.
