Cathy-Anne McClintock " Self-Titled," 37

Wow. This record takes a few minutes to sink in, but once you get into it, this self-titled record from McClintock is impactful. And I mean that. Incredibly soft-spoken through and through, this folk masterpiece takes the best aspects of pop music while still living in the stream-line world of contemporary folk. Her voice is nothing that will blow you away, but she can sing, which is enough to match up to her incredible song writing. If you like what is coming out of the folk world today, this album could bring you to tears.
