CLASS SOCIAL

Our class social has been planned and a date has been set. To keep everyone up to date on the latest, here's an outline.

Our social has been set for January 29, 2011 @ 3:00pm. We will meet at the church and from there we will travel to Wilmington for some shopping at Mayfaire Village. After we have browsed a bit, we will head over to Romano's Macaroni Grille for dinner. The Macaroni Grille is an Italian restaurant, but they also have other menu items that I'm sure anyone would enjoy. After dinner, if time permits, we may stop by the mall on our way out. I know most of you have small children so we will try not to be out late. It just so happens that Dewey and I will have a new grandbaby on January 28th, so I will be babysitting the first child so mother and father can have the second child, so I prefer not to be out late myself. The babysitter is having to get a babysitter for this little outing. Talk about a juggling act! All of you mark your calendars and plan ahead. We want as many people as possible to attend. This will be our Christmas/Valentine Celebration.

Speaking of Valentines, the Special Event's Committee is planning a Valentine's Social on February 12th in the CLC. Again, everyone mark your calendars for this event. Hopefully you will hear more about this in the weeks to come. We did not participate in this event last year because our class had a "scheduling" conflict. This year I would like to encourage you to participate if your schedules allow.

MITCHELL GAUSE FUNDRAISER

In the bulletin this week you will also see a flyer announcing a BBQ Plate Sale and Auction Fundraiser for Mitchell Gause on February 5th. Our class has been asked to provide 12 gallons of baked beans for this event. We already have one case (6 gallons) of beans that was left over from our last plate sale. Please come prepared on Sunday to give $1.00 per person to purchase an additional case of beans. We are also looking for volunteers to bake cakes and if you have any items you would like to give for the auction, I will be glad to pick those up. Your help is greatly appreciated! Well, I'm out of room. Have a great week everyone.....Connie.
