Lynn Lupo, Lead Vocals, Guitar, Flute

Lynn brings to the stage a powerful and expressive singing voice developed over 30 years of public performance. Classically trained, she has performed at a variety of venues throughout the Midwest, everything from classical to classic rock. For twelve years, she co-fronted the successful classic rock cover band Phoenix.

Skilled in multiple styles, Lynn's first love is classic rock. In addition to Ann & Nancy Wilson, her influences include Melissa Etheridge, Rod Stewart and Roger Daltry. She brings her passion and love of performance to every show.

Bob Roberts, Lead Vocals

Bob takes the stage with charisma, style and a powerful set of pipes. For over 20 years, he has fronted Chicago-area bands, including Phoenix for twelve years and the WCKG house band for five years.

Bob has appeared at venues all over Chicago including The House of Blues, Poplar Creek and Rosemont Horizon. He cites Jim Morrison (The Doors) and the classic Motown sound as two of his many musical influences. His versatile singing voice and on-stage appeal make him a favorite on the Chicago music scene.

Chris Georgeff, Keyboards

Chris is classically trained on piano and music theory. A veteran of the Northwest Indiana/Chicago music scene, he has been playing keyboards in bands and songwriting for over 25 years. His influences include Keith Emerson, Jonathan Cain, and Tim Capello. He's also inspired by ELP, Journey, The Babys, Gamma, Lenny Kravitz, and Johnny Cash.
