

Walk With Me

Words & music by:
John Dandrea

walk with me, till the sunlight is gone whis'pring winds, so softly will carry us along, come. ....

hear the sea, as she's calling my name splashing the beach, to warm our feet, wanting us to remain please. .... stay. ....

all our laughter, will lighten our way sharing our lives, promising to return again someday love. ....

beauty calls you to colour the skies all my life, reflected in the rainbow of your eyes love. .... me. ....

(c) 5 May 1980
John Dandrea