

Tomorrow

Words & music by:
John Dandrea

flying, and sighing time was so far away until it passed us by you were gone before ever I knew why I'm asking empty questions, To fill my empty mind.

I know, you'll go and never cast a glance here back my way when all is done, what really can I say? it all seems now so distant I never said goodbye. (goodbye.....)

remember once in awhile, these moments forgotten on your smile how every one came true - remember how I looked at you laughter, and after I've gone and just a mem'ry lingers on wish sometimes feelings weren't so strong oh and everything I've felt for you, will you still remember tomorrow? (tomorrow.....)

tomorrow.
