

Waiting For You

words & music by:
John Dandrea

tell me, where ya going
without that smile on your pretty face?
lady, whatcha thinkin' ?

(female voice in the distance:)

"life is a masquerade, caught in the webs we've made, I'm standing in the shade, waiting for you. . . ."

tell me, where ya going
with all that hurt in your lovely eyes?
lady, whatcha thinkin' ?

(female voice in the distance:)

"I'm not what I seem, was it just a dream. . . .
and what does loving mean, waiting for you. . . ."

"listen to my song,
love goes on and on. . . .
I'll sing it so true,
waiting for you. . . ."

tell me, where ya going
there's nowhere else you can find my love
lady, whatcha thinkin' ?

(female voice in the distance:)

"warm, sunny days, you can make them stay. . . .
I'll show you the way, waiting for you. . . ."
