

The background of the page is a colorful illustration of an underwater world. At the top, there are several dolphins swimming. Below them, a variety of colorful fish, including blue tangs and yellow tangs, are scattered throughout. On the right side, a large sea turtle is visible. The bottom of the page is filled with diverse coral reefs and more fish, including a prominent orange fish. The entire scene is set against a light blue background, creating a bright and lively atmosphere.

Lady Of The Dawn

words & music by John Dandrea (c) 1979

This song was a celebration of the feelings I had for a very special lady in my life. It's a warm, lively guitar song that was fun to play and fun to sing. The words sing praises to the kind of woman who has a special kind of strength - a gift of a strong spirit that always sees the good in people and that always is able to say a kind word and offer a warm hug to make someone feel a little bit better about their day.

The song celebrates certain rare qualities of a woman that I'd search for and occasionally find many times later in my life, and I'd always be amazed and awed to find such a woman.

"She helps me to find the way, even when she's gone, her loving lingers on she's the Lady of the Dawn".

-John