

The background of the page is a colorful illustration of an underwater world. At the top, there are several dolphins swimming. Below them, a variety of colorful fish, including blue tangs and yellow tangs, are scattered throughout. In the middle section, there are two dolphins on the left and a sea turtle on the right. The bottom half of the page is filled with a dense coral reef, featuring various types of coral and many different species of fish, including a large orange fish and a striped fish. The entire scene is set against a light blue background with bubbles and a soft, sunlit glow.

I Once Had A Dream

words & music by
John Dandrea (c) 1978

We all want that one very special relationship to last forever, to have that "being in love" feeling for a lifetime - while most of us fall short of that dream, this song celebrates that special feeling shared.

This is one of those songs that just tumbled out as a happy-to-sing-to sort of song. A very easy and simple melody with the kind of lyrics that express the simple and innocent joy of just being out in the park, walking hand in hand with that very special someone in your life.

For my part, it was a perfect sort of day and a perfect kind of feeling, expressed in the words "I'll show you each day just how much I care", "I'll surround you with love everywhere". The expression matched the feeling; a beautiful summer day to enjoy being out with the one you love, being thankful for that person and basking in the sunlight of their love!

-John