

Lady Of The Dawn

words & music
John Dandrea

I know a lady,
with eyes as blue as the sea sunlight colors her hair she'll always know that I care her spirit is always strong she's never down for long she's the Lady of the Dawn well I know a lady who reaches out to touch me whenever I'm going astray she helps me find the way even when she's gone her loving lingers on she's the Lady of the Dawn

I know a lady,
who knows the way to be free she always knows what to say she's the sunshine of my day I know her love is strong
