

A Long Time Ago

words & music by John Dandrea

There's a lady right here by my side and she's dreaming something that she can't hide how can something so right be so real? and how can I show you how I feel?

There's a feeling I get when I look in your eyes like everything is gonna be alright walking hand in hand through the years to come and babe in our love we'll be as one *such a long, long time ago I waited for you to come along a long long time ago

I waited, singing my song
a long long time ago
so happy to see you've come along. . . .come along.*

There's a lady knockin' at my door wants to show me just what love is for guess I'll open up and let her know I was waiting for her a long time ago

*such a long, long time ago
a long long time ago
a long long time ago
so happy to see you've come along*
