

The Day Could Have Never Ended

words & music by John Dandrea

*the others have all gone and stillness fills the room across the hall I hear your memory calling my name
I wish,
the day could have never ended...*

*I look to your eyes and you wonder what I felt I feel a love that's ever growing only for you
I wish,
somehow you'd feel the same way too...* *the laughter and the years lay before us like the leaves swept along by winds of fortune calling our names

I wish,
the day could have never ended...*
