

Give Me Some Time

words & music by John Dandrea

*well can you give me some time?
I seem to have a habit of losing mine....
and you know what they say,
you don't know what you've got 'till it's taken away.*

*well can you lift up a tune?
I seem to have a need to brighten this room....
I don't know how long it's been but would you please let the sunlight in?*

*well you've been on my mind -
so glad you stopped by
to give me some time.*

*well can you tell from my face?
I'm holdin' on until I'm out of this place....
and I want you to know
within the sands of time you're never alone*

*well you've been on my mind -
so glad you stopped by
to give me some time.*

to give me some time....*
