- Members have the right to use the Club Name in competition entries or other venues where Club affiliation may be appropriately used.

III. B. (c) Removal of Members

Any Member may be removed by agreement of a simple majority of the Officers. Removal may be from either a lack of regular attendance or from a disciplinary or behavioral situation that cannot be resolved between Members.

Written notice of a meeting where removal of a Member is to be considered shall include a specific reference to the matter in question. The removal shall become effective upon refunding of the Member's most recent dues.

III. C Officers and Elections

Officers are Members of the Mad Z with special responsibilities and powers.

III. C. (a) Declarations and Nominations

The presiding President will call for declarations and nominations one month prior to the March election.

Members, as defined in III B above, interested in running for an officer position should declare their intent at least two (2) weeks prior to the date of the meeting where election will be held. Members running for an officer position will submit their name, position they are running for, and a brief description of their qualifications and reason for running for the position to the club email address info@madzymurgists.org.

The Member running for officer must be present at the election meeting (except for extenuating circumstances approved by the current officers).

Members may also nominate other Members for an officer position. The nominated individual must still accept that nomination via a declaration of their intent to run for an officer position two (2) weeks prior to the March election.

III. C. (a) . i Special Consideration for Positions Without Candidates

Declarations and Nominations may also be made at the March election when there are positions to be filled that do not have candidates. The President will call for declarations and nominations from the floor in this special situation.

III. C. (b) Election and Terms

Officers shall be elected at the annual meeting in March, take office and begin duties at the first meeting in April and serve for one year or until new officers are elected.

Ballots will be sent out to Members between one and two weeks prior to the election.

Members will be present at the meeting to vote. Members unable to attend the election may request to vote by absentee ballot, at least two (2) days prior to election by contacting an officer.

Voting will take place after the officer positions are presented with the names of the Members running for each of the positions.

Election of officers will be decided by plurality of club Members including any absentee votes. Each member will have one vote for each position.

Upon the occurrence of a vacancy, an interim election shall be held at the next meeting to fill the vacancy for the balance of The Club year. Officers may succeed themselves in the same office.

III. D Meetings

III. D. (a) Member Meeting

The Mad Zymurgists will meet monthly on the 2nd Thursday of each month (excluding certain holidays or months in which a Club event is held, e.g. the annual holiday party). In the event of a holiday interfering with a scheduled club meeting (e.g. Valentine's Day), the default is to re-schedule for the following Thursday.

III. D. (b) Officer Meetings

Officers will meet outside of regular Club meetings at least one (1) time per quarter to facilitate Club planning, discuss club procedures, Charter updates, membership, disputes by Members, and other activities as appropriate to the role of the officers.

Minutes from officer meetings will be taken by the Secretary and will be available to Club Members upon request.

IV. Amendments

Any Member in good standing who has been a registered member for at least two (2) months and attended at least two (2) meetings may suggest amendments to the Club Charter.

Amendments will be written by the officers and must be ratified by a simple majority vote of a quorum representing 50% of the Members of the Club.

All amendments passed by the Club will automatically become part of the Club Charter and thus adopted by each Club Member. All Club Members will be held responsible for following the rules introduced by any changes to the Member policies introduced in an Amendment.

V. Miscellaneous

V. A Privacy Policy

The Mad Zymurgists collects basic information about its members including name, address, telephone numbers and email.

Member information may, from time to time, be shared with partners of the Mad Zymurgists or with vendors that have agreed to provide benefits or discounts to Mad Z members.

The Mad Zymurgists will never collect member information to sell to vendors or merchants. The Mad Zymurgists will never collect or share member financial information it may have access to, including checking information or credit card information, with any vendors, merchants, or partners of the Mad Z.

V. B Dissolution

In the event that the Mad Zymurgists Club dissolves its membership and no longer continues as an association entity, the following will occur:

- All club physical assets will be donated to local schools and/or charities as decided upon by the current presiding officers.
- All club financial assets will be donated to the American Homebrewers Association.

VI. Agreement

I do hereby understand and agree with the rules and terms of membership in the Mad Zymurgists club.
