Grab your legwarmers, and Member's Only jackets because Tallahassee goes "Back to the '80s" this weekend! Friday, October 28, 2011, Florida State University's parents' weekend kicks off with the United Way of the Big Bend's "Downtown Getdown". Anchoring entertainment for the event is the South East's biggest '80s "tribute" band, Rubix Cubed.

'80s nostalgia is huge right now. '80s music icons still on tour, '80s movie remakes & re-releases, even '80s themed parties. Rubix Cubed, a Tampa based '80s show band, is a multi-sensory recap of all that was "the '80s", performing in era costumes, complete with '80s props, music videos, commercials, and film clips. Rubix Cubed's playlist, pure pop '80s hits, includes "Material Girl" by Madonna, "She Bop" by Cyndi Lauper, and "Hungry Like the Wolf" by Duran Duran.

The five piece band was formed five years ago by Tampa husband and wife team, Chris and Michelle Stainton. Rubix Cubed has opened, locally, for the Cure, Kool and the Gang, Huey Lewis & the News, and Pat Benatar; entertained at the (Devil) Rays '80s nights, and FSU vs Miami football game 2009; performed regularly at venues such as The House of Blues, Orlando, The Ritz Theater (Ybor City), the Largo Cultural Arts Center, Skippers Smokehouse (Tampa), and John and Mable Ringling Museum of Art in Sarasota; various other public and private events. Rubix Cubed even traveled, twice, to Cuba in the summer of 2009 & fall of 2010 to play for our service members and families at the Guantanamo Bay Naval Station.

The charity sponsored pep-rally, Downtown Getdown, takes place from 6-10 pm at the Adams Street Commons, October 28, 2011.
