

THE RHYTHM METHOD

Syria T. Berry – vocals, guitar

A seasoned vocalist and guitarist, Syria has opened for the Coasters and the Drifters and performed professionally for 40 years in nightclubs and concert halls. He currently serves as the Minister of Music and Arts at Living Hope Neighborhood Church in Richmond, CA.

Bonnie Olivier – vocals

Bonnie received a music scholarship to college and toured the U.S. with a choir as a featured soloist. She has worked as a back-up singer at Fantasy Records and was a founding member of the gospel group Determination.

Duane Campbell – bass, back-up vocals

Duane toured as an original member of The Catfish Hodge Band, recording several albums, opening for national acts, and playing clubs up and down the Eastern Seaboard & throughout the Midwest. He also performs frequently with a jazz trio.

Bruce Reingold – trumpet, percussion

Bruce has been playing trumpet in funk, blues, jazz and rock bands for more than 20 years. His major influences include: Clifford Brown, Lee Morgan, Miles Davis, Chet Baker, James Brown and Earth Wind and Fire.

THE RHYTHM METHOD

Michael Gill – keys

Pianist and veteran composer Michael Gill has performed in a variety of bands, inked a record deal with ProgRock Records, and recently released an exciting solo album, "Blues for Lazarus." He has written music for theater, industrial films, television commercials, planetarium shows, and the documentary "Kyimolung – A Hidden Valley in the Himalayas."

Alan Siegel – guitar, band leader

Alan has led The Rhythm Method since its creation in 2008, inspired by a hospital fundraiser which celebrated the importance of creativity in our lives. His efforts with the band have linked two critical areas of his life -- music and his work as a family physician and educator.

Sharon Hymes-Offord –vocals

Sharon has been singing since the age of 4 and been featured with a variety of bands. She was on contract with Fantasy Records for 3 years, and has recorded and performed with: Sylvester, Rance Allen, The Weather Girls, Paradise Express, Freida Payne and Derrick Hughes.

Donn Spindt – drums, back-up vocals

Donn recently joined The Rhythm Method, after returning from 2 tours in Spain as an original member of The Rubinoos. He also plays with the Yardbirds' cover band, The Rave Ups, and is currently working on a Beatles/John Lennon tribute project.
