Jay Martin watched in awe!! as she found cones and cups with long arms that amazed us all!! It was fun, but we had wonderful customers!!

I had a lot of phone calls this month for prayer for very sick people. A wonderful man of God, Rev. Jack Lassister that lives in Greenville, NC and is a wonderful Evangelist. He is a very sick man and I ask all of you who read this to pray for a complete healing of his entire body. For Wisdom to come forth from the Doctors to diagnosis the pain in his back area. Man were they all good. Dr. Stanley was there most of Tuesday talking to people and encouraging them in their walk with the Lord. I had a wonderful word with Mrs. Hagee what a great woman of God. We were so blessed by being with them several times in Charlotte, N. C. Our children enjoyed their children and they were so nice. Mrs. Hagee is very protective of her husband when he is getting ready to preach, she makes sure he has his time alone in prayer without being interrupted! Thanks Mrs. Hagee. Was blessed by Pastor Jeff Laborg, great powerful message. He was a SURPRISE and kept us all on the edge of our chairs!! There was well over 100 salvations, they forgot to count one night!! “THE HIDDEN THREATS WE FACE”

Recently I stood at Ground Zero in New York and prayed and remembered 9/11! This tragedy awakened most Americans to a crisis many did not know existed. We see what the Islamic Brotherhood has done in Egypt. We are in shock over the thousands being killed in Syria and fear what Iran may do. The al-Qaeda terrorists and Islamic fundamentalists have threatened our freedom and all other religions. In many Muslim countries like Saudi Arabia, Bibles or Churches are not permitted. In some Muslim countries Christians are killed or tortured daily.

In the 20th Century the great threat to the free world was Communism, Marxism and Socialism. In the 21st Century the threat to peace, liberty and religious freedom comes from a religion called Islam. I know there are many wonderful Muslims but the radicals who follow their religious teachings are anti-Christian and anti-Jewish. Wherever they rule non-Muslims are persecuted. The Bible tells us to “Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem” but they plan to destroy Israel.

We need to remember the Mohammed was a successful warlord, military and political leader, not just a religious leader. Jesus said, “Go out and convert the World.” Mohammed said, “Go out and conquer the World.” Islam accepts no other religion. Their faith does not allow for freedom of religion and expression.

It is important that we love and respect Muslims. At the same time we need to understand their faith and goals as taught in the Koran. It is difficult for Muslims to be American Patriots and loyal citizens. Many political leaders and religious people find it to their advantage to avoid the facts. We must face the truth for freedom to prevail!

“SOME CALL IT A HOLY WAR”

The two kingdoms on earth have never been more evident. Our secular culture has declared war on God’s Kingdom as we have entered 2013. On December 17, 2012 one of the most liberal magazines, “Newsweek” ran another article attacking most things the Bible teaches about Jesus. On the cover Bart Ehrman asks, “Who was Jesus?” In the story he talked about the myths of Jesus. Myths best describes his article.

There are many attacks today on Christianity and the Bible. I observe the elite news media, our present government, educators and even religious leaders are often the greatest enemy of Christianity. This group comes from the far left and actually is a small minority but is vocal while Christians sleep.

It is encouraging to see some brave Leaders speaking out for truth. Franklin Graham, son of Billy Graham says, “America is on the fast track of GOD’s Judgment. HE speaks of the sin of abortion and same sex marriage as signs of coming judgment on America. Well-known Author and Pastor, Rick Warren, told his people before the election to vote as Christians. He mentioned that Christians should protect the unborn, view sex as holy and protect traditional marriage. Warren said, “If you call yourself a Christians you must line up with what God says.”

California Pastor Jim Garlow led the protest against same sex-marriage and won. It has been appealed but Christians everywhere should pray that family values win. I believe Christians and Pastors, in particular, can still make a crucial difference in our country. The atheists, ACLU, liberal media, corrupt government leaders and especially secular University Professors attack Christians daily. We must stand our ground and not allow these unbelievers to destroy all that is good in America. I sometimes wonder if those know-it-all Christ haters have even walked into the Supreme Court and read the Ten Commandments on the Wall. Our educators need to study American history rather than rewrite what made America great!

“AMERICA’S GREATEST ASSET”

The Bible is the bedrock of our American society. This amazing Book has a plan for every life and an answer for every problem. The Bible is the most popular Book on earth. Travel the world and you will often find it on or in the night stand by your bed. The Gideon’s have covered the world with GOD’s road map for life. A Barna survey found 60% of American adults believe the BIBLE to be completely accurate in everything it says.

It tells us there is a right and wrong and shows us how to choose the right. All the recent shootings in our schools were done by people who do not live by the BIBLE! Many who commit these terrible crimes worship Satan and others use drugs or have a mental problem. In the past, the BIBLE was often read in the classrooms and the TEN COMMANDMENTS were taught. In those days I never heard of a mass shooting in school.

The Bible contains 66 different books and has 1,188 chapters. This wonderful BOOK brings comfort in time of sorrow and offers hope to the hopeless. It gives us the teachings of Jesus and a lifestyle that brings true happiness. A well-known leader recently told me, “If there was no life after death I would still want to be a Christian!”

One of the great needs in many Churches is for the Pastor to preach the WORD! The BIBLE has power and gives direction for the good life. I have read the BIBLE daily since I was a nine year old boy and still marvel at its wisdom and unchanging truth. My wife reads it through each year and finds it the inexhaustible source of real knowledge.

The BIBLE and its teachings should be on the curriculum of every school. The BIBLE will restore our disappearing values and can be our greatest source of wisdom and knowledge. It will give true understanding of civility and help restore AMERICA to her greatness.
I Quit: Joel Osteen Target of Elaborate Hoax

Joel Osteen is quitting his church and abandoning his Christian faith, according to an elaborate Internet hoax targeting the Texas megapastor.

Osteen, the very visible face of the Lakewood Church in Houston since 1999, is, in reality, not quitting, despite several phony websites, news stories and even a YouTube video declaring otherwise.

Believe it or not, the Bible does NOT say you’re meant to float on a cloud, doing nothing but playing a harp forever. Your destiny is far greater and more glorious. Find out why God REALLY created you. Get details in the autographed bestseller, “The Divine Secret: The Awesome and Untold Truth About Your Phenomenal Destiny.”

A statement attributed to Osteen on the hoax site reads: As many of you may know, and may have heard in the news recently, many of my sermons have deviated from traditional Christian doctrine. I have been accused of altering the ‘message’ to fit my own doctrine and dogma. Others have accused me of preaching ‘feel good Christianity’. I have also been accused of profiting greatly from my ministry, with my books and television deals.

Many of their criticisms are legitimate. What they don’t know is that deep down in my heart, for a number of years now, I have been questioning the faith, Christianity and whether Jesus Christ is really my, or anyone’s, ‘savior’.

I believe now that the Bible is a fallible, flawed, highly inconsistent history book that has been altered hundreds of times. There is zero evidence the Bible is the holy word of God. In fact, there is zero evidence “God” even exists.

No God worth believing in is going to send you to Hell for not believing in him. Not even the worst sinner and scum of the Earth deserves eternal torment in Hell. In fact, God is more likely to congratulate you upon entering Heaven for doubting, questioning and not believing the religionists and their flimsy facts, demands of blind faith and lack of hard evidence.

The fraudulent quote went on to make Osteen sound like an anti-Obama activist and pro-environment champion, saying, “What we have to focus on now that I’ve left the faith are the immediate issues at hand that affect us in the real world. The destruction of our environment by multinational corporations, the poisoning of our food and water, the toxic fluoride they have been putting in our water for 50 years, the toxic GMO foods that the Monsanto corporation is responsible for, Obama’s many destructive policies and his administration’s attempt to dismantle the 2nd Amendment. These issues will be what I will begin to focus on, so long as the media does not completely shut me out.”

A phony CNN headline declares Joel Osteen is resigning from his church and rejecting Christianity.

There are even fake news images from the Drudge Report, CBN, Yahoo News, and one from CNN with the headline, “Pastor of mega church resigns, rejects Christ,” with a subhead, “Cites lack of faith, pledges ‘new church.’”

Lakewood Church officials have indicated they’re aware of the hoax and “false rumor.”

White House Map Erases Jerusalem, Biblical Territories

The White House has released what it says is a map of Israel. The only problem is that Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria and the Golan Heights are missing.

An Obama administration video highlighting the president’s plans for his Mideast trip depicts Jerusalem, the Golan and the West Bank – also known as Judea and Samaria – as non-Israeli territory.

The Washington Free Beacon, which first reported the discrepancies, noted the video shows the Golan Heights as part of Syria; Jerusalem is depicted as part of the West Bank; and northern Israel is shown as part of Lebanon.

WND reported in August 2012 when the White House refused to name the capital of Israel – not once, but twice – as the two most senior White House correspondents cornered Obama’s press secretary, doggedly questioning him on whether the Obama administration considered Jerusalem or Tel Aviv to be the capital of the Jewish state.

The itinerary on the White House website further implies that Jerusalem is not Israel’s capital or even part of Israel, reported the Free Beacon. Obama’s schedule lists two stops in “Tel Aviv, Israel” and one in “Amman, Jordan,” while his trip to Israel’s capital city is identified as taking place only in “Jerusalem.”

The itinerary is consistent with information first released by WND disclosing Obama’s planned visit already has secured Israeli and Palestinian pledges to restart so-called land-for-peace talks that aim to see Israel relinquish the West Bank and eastern Jerusalem, according to informed Israeli and Palestinian Authority officials.

The officials disclosed the Obama administration told both sides the talks would be aimed at creating a Palestinian state in what is known as the 1967 borders, meaning an Israeli retreat from some of the strategic West Bank and possibly some eastern sections of Jerusalem.

According to the informed officials, Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu agreed that once the talks begin, there will be a silent, undeclared freeze on all Jewish construction in the West Bank and eastern Jerusalem with the exception of what are known as main blocs – Maale Adumin, Ariel and Gush Etzion.

The officials said the White House was adamant that Israeli talks with Palestinian Authority President Mahmoud Abbas begin regardless of the position of Hamas, which controls the Gaza Strip. Still, the U.S. is supporting Qatar, Egypt, Jordan and Turkey in back-door efforts to broker a national unity deal between Abbas and Hamas during the same time period that the Israeli-Palestinian negotiations are set to take place, the officials said.

There is already close coordination between the White House and members of Netanyahu’s government coalition, who are known to be sympathetic to creating a Palestinian state, primarily former opposition leader Tzipi Livni.

Further, WND was told that Livni and former Minister Haim Ramon are currently coordinating the renewal of talks with the PA’s chief negotiator, Saeb Erekat.

Regarding Jerusalem, the informed Israeli and Palestinian officials said the White House has been nonspecific other than to champion talks based on what is known as the Clinton parameters.

The formula, pushed by President Bill Clinton in the Camp David talks in 2000, called for Jewish areas of Jerusalem to remain Israeli while the Palestinians get sovereignty over neighborhoods that are largely Arab.

WND previously reported Palestinians are building illegally in Jewish-owned areas of Jerusalem, creating Arab majorities in certain neighborhoods.

The informed officials, meanwhile, said the White House expects the issue of Jerusalem to be a key impediment to reaching a deal and is therefore discussing the formation of an international committee to help smooth the process.

Previous Israeli-Palestinian talks saw the U.S. naming an envoy meant to broker between the two sides. According to the officials speaking to WND, the White House has expressed interest in naming an envoy but has doubts about whether such a point man will be successful.

Ohio School Takes Down Jesus Portrait Under Legal Threat

A portrait of Jesus that had adorned a southern Ohio public school district building since 1947 has been taken down after officials decided they could not risk losing a lawsuit to the American Civil Liberties Union.

The superintendent of Jackson City Schools told The Associated Press that the decision was made after the district’s insurance company declined to cover litigation expenses. Phil Howard said a student club that the school says owns the portrait took it down Wednesday morning at his direction.

“At the end of the day, we just couldn’t roll the dice with taxpayer money,” Howard said. “When you get into these kinds of legal battles, you’re not talking about money you can raise with bake sales and car washes. It’s not fair to take those resources from our kids’ education.”

The ACLU and the Freedom from Religion Foundation had sued on behalf of a student and two parents, calling the portrait an unconstitutional promotion of religion in a public school. An ACLU spokesman says the lawsuit remains in effect, but will be dropped if the portrait stays down.

The “Head of Christ,” a popular depiction of Jesus, had been in an entranceway’s “Hall of Honor” in a middle school building that was formerly a high school. It was near portraits of dozens of prominent alumni and people with local roots such as the late four-term Ohio Gov. James Rhodes. The portrait was moved recently by a Christian-based service club to the current high school building.

A complaint that triggered the February lawsuit put the 2,500-student district in the midst of the ongoing national debate over what religious-themed displays are permissible.

Greetings, Christian Voice Magazine friends!

April showers have brought the May flowers to the Carolinas. I am so happy to be receiving Facebook, guestbook, and email messages from you commenting on my articles each month. I love to hear from you! You inspire me to write my article each month, so please continue to send in your comments, ideas, and prayer requests to me on my website or professional Facebook. The highest amount of messages I have received thus far has been April’s article about my favorite uplifting television shows, Duck Dynasty & The Bible. I was triumphant in my conquest to get Ms. Julia Goins (my dear friend and co-owner of the Christian Voice Magazine) to watch Duck Dynasty! 😊 I think that I have inspired another devoted Duck Dynasty fan!

This month, I wanted to talk about game plans. We all have them, yet they often change to adapt to social or spiritual challenges. While the plan may change, it is important to have structure in what you wish to accomplish in life.

My mom has always been a planner. In studying genetic biology this semester, I’m amazed at how genes can make an individual unique, yet DNA carries traits from both the mother and father to the next generation. Therefore, the original information is never lost, but is simply modified. I wish that I would have inherited the planning trait from my mom. However, while it does not come naturally to me, I put forth the effort to apply this trait in my life because of her influence. Did you know that your environment can influence your life as much, if not more than your genes?

Game plans come from your individual goals. Your goals may come from your talents. Those talents or traits are carried in your genes. The Creator gave you the genetic makeup to make you amazing in who you are.

Game plans change due to environment. Outside forces can hinder or help you in your quest to your goal. It is important that we keep our focus on the end result. While the journey may be different than the original plan, attaining your goal is what really matters.

May the ultimate goal in your life be pleasing and honoring God with your actions, words, and goals. If God Almighty has a game plan, then so should we! What a joy to know that His game plan includes us! “Behold, I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give to everyone according to what he has done. I am the Alpha and Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.” –Revelation 22:12-13.

Blessings for a great month!

Sincerely,

Victoria

Jesus spoke of many things after his resurrection that included instructions that are still to be carried out today. The Great Commission to Go and Teach is in Matthew 28:19-20. “Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.” (KJV). It is a responsibility and privilege of every Believer to proclaim the gospel, the good news, everything about Jesus Christ.

The born again experience has enlisted many into a mighty army above class and rank of the ordinary. An emissary is one who is a part of this exceptional class, an agent of change, sent on missions representing the government of the Kingdom of God. Emissaries are dangerous because they know their true identity and are not deceived easily by the world system. They are equipped with the power of the Holy Spirit and are called to transact Kingdom business.

Many of the early disciples recognized that the enemy was subject to them through the name of Jesus. (Luke 10:17). When Jesus said “Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you,” it was after they realized the power of His name. (Luke 10:19 KJV). They had no idea the magnitude of the power that was with them until they went out. The Body of Christ has not even begun to realize the power that is within.

After the resurrection, when Jesus visited the disciples He breathed on them. “Then Jesus said to them again, Peace to you! Just as the Father has sent Me forth, so I am sending you. And having said this, He breathed on them and said to them, Receive the Holy Spirit!” John 20:21-22 AMP). Then He gave instructions to wait for the promise of the Father. “But you shall receive power (ability, efficiency, and might) when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you shall be My witnesses in Jerusalem and all Judea and Samaria and to the ends (the very bounds) of the earth. Acts 1:8 AMP). We have the promise of the Father, but where is the evidence and manifestation of the power? Signs shall follow those who believe. Where is the proof of their belief? Where are the dangerous ones equipped with such boldness that they are a threat to the world system of the enemy? Yes, there is a sign of speaking in tongues, but that is not enough. There is a God work force that is arising that are prepared with the power and waiting to be unleashed to go into a city, a nation, a territory or region to ignite the change where there will be no denying the power and glory of the living God!

The apostle Paul was the most dangerous emissary. In Acts, chapter 9, he goes from fierce hatred of Christians, to being one of the most radical in Body of Christ. Although he never physically met Jesus, his radical and zealous faith took him on many missionary journeys. He was determined to spread the gospel. When He entered a city, chaos erupted into a riot because the enemy knew that exposure was eminent and the truth would be revealed. (Acts 19). When will our voices rise with power to enter into the city limits and pull down and annihilate the strongholds of the enemy that are holding people hostage? “The hills melted like wax at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth. (Psalm 97:5).
God,
I am thankful for Mommy!

A Prophetic Voice

Living in America today seems more difficult than ever before. Never before have so few working people supported so many who either can not or will not work today. There are many who see this dependency as being promoted by our leaders in government. While that may be true to some degree, I believe God is allowing all of this because we as a country have moved so far from the promises made to God concerning this Nation. I have written over and over about the book called “THE HARBINGER” and how it says we as a Nation are in such deep trouble.

There are so many Christians who blame all of this on Satan. I believe we, as Christians, give Satan far too much power. If we take the time to look at the book of “JOB”, the first chapter says that God gave Satan His permission to attack Job. Job 1:10 Says; ‘Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? Thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.” I believe this is where this Nation was after the Civil War. This Nation had to let go of slavery before God truly put His blessings on this Nation. President Abraham Lincoln said in his famous Gettysburg Address; “That we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain, that this nation under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, for the people shall not perish from the earth.” I believe he spoke prophetically that day, and as long as this Nation remained “ONE NATION UNDER GOD” it would not perish from this earth.

I have watched in my lifetime this Nation move further and further from our commitment to God. Our justice system has removed the “The Ten Commandments” from our courthouses. Our leaders have decided that abortion should be a legal form of birth control. Our society as a whole has decided that sex outside of marriage is a right, even if performed by two people of the same sex. Now they even want that right to be called “A MARRIAGE”. The Bible is so clear on how God sees homosexuality. Not only does He call it an abomination, Leviticus 18:22 says; “Thou shalt lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination.”, He also says in Romans 1:18-32 what will happen with those who practice such things. Romans 1:28 says; “And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do the things which are not convenient.”

We know that the “BIBLE” is God’s word, and it is truth. We should understand that He is removing His Hedge of Protection from our Nation. If our court justices decide that two people of the same sex can marry, what will be next? Will they allow pedophilia to be made a right?

Spring Brings New Life

I just LOVE Spring! It’s my absolute favorite time of year! The flowers are blooming, the trees are budding. Everything is green again…. coming back to life after the dreadful winter months. We get back out in the yard, sprucing up the flower beds, adding little touches of the beautiful colors of the season. And for some of us, we get our gardens planted. We did that several weeks ago, and thankfully, it’s coming up nicely now.

We planted squash, cucumbers, tomatoes, ceyenne peppers, bell peppers, jalapeno peppers, banana peppers (Can you tell we like peppers?), roma beans, speckled butterbeans, corn, watermelon, cantaloupe, and peanuts. Now that everything’s planted, I absolutely LOVE watching it grow! I try to go out every day (or at least every couple of days) to monitor… or rather, to “marvel” at how much they’ve grown since the last time I was out there.

It never ceases to amaze me at how something as simple as “planting a garden” can tell the story of Jesus, if we look at it just right. Let me explain…

We all know about the death, burial, and resurrection of our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Right? Well, my garden tells about all three. First of all, think about where a seed comes from. In all reality, that seed came from the “death” of that particular vegetable (or fruit), because once the vegetable or fruit was picked from the plant, there was no more “life” flowing in it; so therefore, it was “dead”. (In this, I am reminded of Jesus’ death. God’s Word tells us that He bled and died for our sins.)

You can take that seed and “bury” it in the ground, where it remains for a certain amount of time. (This reminds me of Jesus’ burial. His body was placed in a tomb, where it stayed until the 3rd day.)

Then, one day soon, the ground begins to break and there appears a sprout coming forth. It’s a miracle! That “dead” seed we planted is now “alive” again! (To me, it’s a reminder of how Jesus broke the chains of death, when He arose from the tomb.)

I get goose bumps, just thinking about my garden portraying the resurrection story, right before my eyes! What precious blessings God gives to us in the little things of life! Unfortunately, we often miss these blessings, because we don’t take the time to see them with spiritual eyes. All too often, we choose only to see with our earthly eyes. That’s an area in which we all need to be more watchful.

Anyway, like my garden, my “little darlings” are growing pretty fast, too! (That would be my chickens, for those who don’t know.) The boys (Bingo and Colonel) are getting along, despite everyone’s warnings about raising them together. And my girls (Oprah, Violet, Daisy, Rose, Lily, Dahlia, Petunia, and Pansy) are laying better than ever! We’re averaging about 6 or 7 eggs per day now.

I so enjoy watching them, especially in the evenings, when I let them out for an hour or so before dusk. They each have their own unique personality, and it’s sometimes hilarious, how they interact with one another… and other creatures of nature.

Take Abby, for instance. She somehow knows how much I love the garden, so she’s stepped up to bat, taking on the role of Garden Security. She faithfully patrols the rows, keeping the chickens away from our harvest-to-be. I didn’t ask her to do it. She simply volunteered for the position. And the chickens “mind” her very well!

Speaking of the chickens’ different personalities… Miss Rose seems to think she’s an acrobat. She walks the tight-rope back and forth, over and over again. (Okay, so it’s not really a tight-rope… it’s actually a piece of galvanized conduit, that I placed in their “play-yard” for them to sit on. So far, Rose is the only one I’ve seen on it, and like I said, she doesn’t SIT on it… she walks it… back and forth, over and over again. (I hope she isn’t planning to leave me and join the circus!)

Steve built a really nice hen-house for them. I’ve “remodeled” it for them twice already, and Lord willing, I plan to do so again tomorrow. I look at other hen-houses

The enemy has been waging war to block the evidence of the supernatural power of God by attempting to distort and distract our faith in God, using the natural element of time to wear out the saints. He desires to sift the Believers like wheat. (Luke 22:31). But Jesus knows the plan of the enemy and has interceded on our behalf, as He is our High Priest seated on the throne in heavenly places next to the Father.

God plants us among the unbelievers so that His power can be displayed. He has equipped and continues to equip us from faith to faith and from glory to glory. Jesus prayed that we would be one with the Father after he ascended so that we could become carriers of His presence. “Now I am departing from the world; they are staying in this world, but I am coming to you. Holy Father, you have given me your name; now protect them by the power of your name so that they will be united just as we are.” (John17:11). It is in that oneness, that we began to think those thoughts of His that we can handle and receive the sight to see the truth or our existence and abilities for the manifestation of power. “God stands in the assembly of the representatives of God; in the midst of the magistrates or judges He gives judgment as among the gods. How long will you magistrates or judges judge unjustly and show partiality to the wicked? Selah [pause, and calmly think of that!] I said, You are gods since you judge on My behalf, as My representatives; indeed, all of you are children of the Most High.” (Psalm 82: 1-2,6 AMP).

Awaken and arise mighty men and women, warriors of the most High GOD! The Lord has need of you. “Besides this you know what a critical hour this is, how it is high time now for you to wake up out of your sleep, rouse to reality. For salvation, final deliverance is nearer to us now than when we first believed, adhered to, trusted in, and relied on Christ, the Messiah.” (Romans 13:11 AMP). Every time we celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus, there should be a stirring on the inside of us to get up out of the old. There is an activation of the new from the eternal realm. During this high holy time, some things should get up in our spirit. Every thing that the enemy thinks that he has put to sleep or in a dormant state should arise and break free.

“Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity. But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour. If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master’s use, and prepared unto every good work.” (2 Timothy 2:19-21).

2nd Chronicles 7:14 says; “If my people, which are called by My name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.” People of God, now is the time to pray and seek God before this nation falls.

online and if there’s an improvement I can make for them, I want to try to do so. As the old saying goes... “If the ladies are happy, then we’re ALL happy.”

LOL

Well, I suppose that’s enough “news” for now. It’s late and I need a few winks before a busy, busy day tomorrow (today, now).

God bless!

Christian apologist Ravi Zacharias recently discussed the ramifications of social media on society and implied that the Internet phenomenon was like the Tower of Babel from the Bible.

He began his discussion of social media that is posted in a video at ChurchLeaders.com by answering the question, “Isn’t Facebook bad?”

“I think that’s a great question and I frankly think it is an enormously vital phenomenon,” Zacharias said. “Most of us, particularly my generation, do not fully understand it because many in my vintage will not often use it to its full extent. I don’t even understand the ramifications of it sometimes, but I will tell you what, we’ve watched recent movements in continents and sub-continents, watched demagogues overthrown, watched systems changed, [and] watched revolutions begin.”

Zacharias, who wrote several books including Why Jesus? Rediscovering His Truth In An Age of Mass Marketed Spirituality, said the idea of commonality and coming together, which is found in social media, goes all the way back to the book of Genesis when mankind wanted to build a tower for its own glory and for its own edifice.

“They wanted to come together and all of a sudden the Bible says in an incredible way [that] the languages were confused and the people could not communicate with each other,” he explained. “Well, the social media is the new Tower of Babel.”

However, he said that anything such as social media that has such capacity is not intrinsically evil.

“It is how we use it that turns out either for good or for bad. That’s true of any communication method. That’s true of any entertainment. That’s true of sports. That’s true of any way in which we find fulfillment in entertainment,” he said. “But the capacity that this gives is what we need to be cautious about because I want you to hear me carefully now. Where destruction is the motive, unity is dangerous. For example, if I have evil intent and I galvanize that evil intent with many others, the capacity to destroy is immense. Where goodness is the motive, unity is phenomenal and actually has some good issues to it.”

In a worldwide survey done by the BBC three years ago, for the first time, the number one answer to the same survey question, “What is the greatest threat facing humanity right now?” switched from being either “poverty” or “environment” to “corruption,” according to Zacharias.

“Corruption had displaced poverty and the environment as the number one problem facing humanity,” he said. “Well, if the human heart is corrupt and the social media becomes the means you can see where that will take us.”

Zacharias said the youth of today need to “take the same medium, harness the same medium, and use it as a builder of bridges for peace and good will and communication.” He added, “The only thing you need to do to dispel the darkness is to turn on the light.”

He said the same dynamics for communication happened with the printed page and photography. “Only now it can happen instantly. You can make one statement and it can go viral and it can be distorted or whatever,” he said.

“Young people you have an incredible opportunity to be a witness because of the capacities that are now invested in you. Jesus said greater things of these you shall do. … Become a peace builder, a bridge builder, not a destroyer, and the way you do that is through friendships and relationships, and through authentic character.”

He cautioned not to be “in-your-face” with what is said through social media. “Be wise, be careful, but harness it for good. It is here to stay and will only multiply in its capacity.”

There are Angels
God puts on this Earth

Who care for us and guide us.
You can feel their love and gentleness as they walk through life beside us.

They do great things for us every day
they whisper in our ears, they even hold us in their hearts when we are filled with all our fears.

They are always there to give a hug and try to make us smile.
They treat us with respect and love,
they treat us like their child.

God blessed me with an Angel,
I’m proud to call my own.
She’s been with me throughout my life, been with me as I’ve grown.

She’s guided me the best she can,
she’s taught me like no other,
and I’m thankful I’m the lucky one who get’s to call her...

Welcome to Cribb’s Corner, and let’s say hello to May 2013. Happy Mother’s Day to all our moms! We certainly are thankful for the gift that you mothers truly are, and we realize you are sent by the Lord. What a blessing to feel the love only a mother can give, and what a privilege it must be to be someone’s mama. God is GOOD!

The Cribbs are not very busy at this time as we have purposely had to slow down for a while on Sunday mornings, but we are still available for most Sunday nights and some Saturday evenings. I also am available for solo dates and for filling the pulpit to preach for you if needed. I only preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It is the only message that will change the heart of man. Some folks have asked me over the years if I consider myself to be a Pentecostal preacher. My response is “no....I worship in the PH Church and I can truthfully tell you I LOVE my church, but I preach Christ and Him crucified. “ The message God has called me to preach is the same no matter where I get to share it; what I preach in my church I can preach in Baptist, Methodist, Free Will or in any denomination that teaches Jesus is Lord and Savior. The church should have one central message across the board, but unfortunately many times we don’t. We sometimes let nonessential doctrines separate us from each other. When I read Revelation 20 about the judgement seat of Christ, I see where the final thing that will be considered for every man is whether our name is written in the book of life. The KJV reads this way... “And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.” Now, you have to know there are probably more theories about that verse than you can count, but the message of Christ is certainly this in a nutshell. God, before the foundation of this world, knew the end result for man’s wickedness....He saw for Himself a Lamb crucified for our sin.....His Son, Jesus, drank that cup of God’s wrath towards sin....He became sin for us on the cross....He died....He rose up from the grave in three days.....He ascended to and sit’s at the right hand of the Father and intercedes on our behalf.....He will return at the last day; at the last trump to gather His elect from the four corners of this earth .....then comes sudden destruction.... man is judged.... then we who have accepted the free gift of salvation through Christ get to enjoy Heaven forever with our Lord. This is the message of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. He came to seek and to save the lost. You don’t choose Him.... He does the choosing; you make the choice to accept Him. Do you really understand the amazing love of our God? Why would He

Dear Father in Heaven,

I admit that I need you. Please forgive my unbelief and the things I have done wrong. I believe that Jesus is the Son of God and that He paid for all my sins with His blood on the Cross. I call on His name to save me. I now receive His life. I believe Jesus is living in me, that I am forgiven, and now I am a Christian. Because of this free gift of eternal life I will go to be with Jesus when I die. Thank you Lord for saving me. Amen.

We had gone to First Free Will Baptist Church on 67th Ave North in Myrtle Beach to hear Pete and Judy Powell Sing. Not only did the Music sound great, but Pastor Wayne Snipes really did a fine preaching JOB. He took my message and put it together really great!! I believe we speak words over ourselves that really do us harm!! He put You Say, God Says, and gave it scripture!! Thank you Wayne for doing my homework!! Truth sometimes hurts and if I have ever hurt your feelings please forgive me, it was not meant to hurt only to alert and help! Write me for the 14, You say, God says, and the Bible Verses!

Please keep our Nation in your Prayers and pray for ALL in Authority. Lord, in the name of Jesus give all in authority GODLY WISDOM and help them to make GODLY DECISIONS and to be in ONE ACCORD! Please pray for the Peace of Jerusalem and Israel. Pray for our Soldiers and their families. Meet their families needs Lord. Let no weapon formed against them prosper. Cribbs... continued from page 23 do this for you or me? No one person will ever be able to explain the love of God; how can you explain it? But my message to you is He loves you! We lost some wonderful folk to the grave these past few weeks in our community, so I have to ask this in closing.....are you ready to meet the Lord? If not, and you feel the tug of Him speaking to your heart, I encourage you to do this....repent of your sin and turn your life over to the Lord.....find yourself a good bible believing church and become one of His disciples.

If we can be a help to your church in any way; please call.

God Bless You!

Revival Winds are blowing from Botswana to Durban, South Africa

South Africa is on fire for Jesus! The moment we set foot on the continent of Africa; I could sense revival was in the air.

As we entered the building in Botswana, 3000 people set waiting, anxious on a great move of God. As we began to sing and worship God the lights went out. For the next 2 hours we sang and worshipped in the pitch darkness of night. When the electrical power was restored we preached and prayed for the sick and saw many notable miraculous healings. God is fanning the flames of revival in the nation of Botswana!

From Botswana we traveled into the nation of South Africa. The city of Durban, which is located on the coast, has the highest population of Indians in the world other than the nation of India. And it is there that the fire is falling! Hindus and Muslims are coming to Jesus by the thousands. In the last 21 days, over 3000 Hindus have made decisions for Christ! Revival has broken out and is sweeping the region. We saw people get out of wheelchairs, blind eyes/deaf ears restored, and people coming from the hospital being made whole. I personally have laid hands on and prayed for over 3000 people a night and have seen God move miraculously.

God TV (channel 365 on Direct TV) is now covering the revival live daily! It is also broadcast live daily on the internet @ God.TV starting at 1:30pm. It is the “Great Awakening Healing Revival” with Zion Matthew and Todd Bentley. Tune in and be blessed.
