Fulbright scholar featured in chamber music concert

The Chagrin Valley Chamber Music Concert Series will continue April 5 with a recital by pianist Caroline Oltmanns, a Fulbright scholar and international Steinway artist.

A native of Germany, Dr. Oltmanns earned her diploma at the Staatliche Musikhochschule Freiburg and her master's and doctoral degrees at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles. She has performed in Germany, France, Switzerland, South Africa and the United States and has been broadcast on radio and television.

In addition to a variety of piano solo and concerto repertoire, Dr. Oltmanns frequently performs and premieres works by contemporary composers. A professor of piano at Youngstown State University, her musical mentors were John Perry, Robert Levin, Vitaly Margulis and Malcolm Frager.

"Caroline Oltmanns is an extraordinary artist who blends heartfelt emotion and creativity with stellar musical talent," said Hristo Popov, artistic director of the Chagrin Valley Chamber Music Concert Series. "We are honored that she is performing as part of our concert series and sharing her passion for chamber music with the Chagrin Valley community."

The recital is free and open to the public and will take place at 3 p.m. at Valley Lutheran Church, 87 E. Orange St. in Chagrin Falls. Call (440) 247-0390 for more information.
