The Chagrin Valley Chamber Music Concert Series will host pianist Per Enflo at 3 p.m. Feb. 21 at Valley Lutheran Church in Chagrin Falls. He will perform Haydn's Variations in F minor; Beethoven's Sonata in D Major, op 28 (Pastoral) and Schubert's Sonata in B flat major, D 960.

A veteran of the concert stage, Mr. Enflo was born in Stockholm, Sweden, and studied with Gottfrid Boon, Bruno Seidlhofer and Geza Anda. At the age of 11, he gave his first piano recital and, at the age of 12, was a soloist in eight performances of Mozart's 19th Piano Concerto with the Royal Opera Orchestra of Sweden. After winning several national Swedish competitions for young pianists, he made his official debut in the Stockholm Concert Hall in 1963.

Since then, Mr. Enflo has performed in recitals and as a concerto soloist throughout the United States and Europe, including with the Triune Festival Orchestra in Columbus, in recitals and chamber music settings with the Kent State University music faculty, where he is a professor, and in solo piano recital broadcasts on WOSU Classics Network in Ohio.

"Per is a talented pianist of international acclaim," said Hristo Popov, artistic director for the concert series. "We are pleased to showcase him as part of our free chamber concert series and are sure the community will enjoy his emotional interpretations of Haydn, Beethoven and Schubert."

The concert series is supported by donations from audience members and friends.
