Concert series sets open house

The Chagrin Valley Chamber Music Concert Series will hold its spring open house at 2:30 p.m. May 2 at Valley Lutheran Church in Chagrin Falls. The event is free and open to the public and will include complimentary refreshments, a special chamber performance and an announcement of musicians who will perform with during the 2009-10 concert series.

Violinist Hristo Popov, artistic director for the series, will lead a performance of Schubert's cello quintet, joined by Mariana Szalaj and Wendy Portis on violin and Jamie Carney and Michael Gelfand on cello.

"Our past season was our most successful yet," Mr. Popov said. "We thank the Chagrin Valley community for their continued support and open our doors to celebrate chamber music and the many talented musicians who have performed with our series."

Valley Lutheran Church is at 87 E. Orange St. For additional information, call (440) 247-0390.
