

Turn from self centered lust
Turn to the Father of trust
Lean on Jesus Christ now
And He will show you how

Love the world through and through
There's little else to do
Besides following His eternal will
And just remain still

Turn to the Father of Trust
Pray fervently in the Word
Peel the mysterious husk
And bask in Love ensured

Now, cry openly as a child
For I have loved you for awhile
You are special in my plan
As all pieces fill the span

For I have loved you since before the first flower bloomed
And I will take your hand now and release your doom
Your heart needs a little more work for your next journey
And My hands will do the molding even if you worry

Don't fear my child, I am the light and the way
And I've been with you everyday
Relax and let my eternal power of love
Send from heaven a special dove
