

Sitting back taking a stance
For love is forgiving
Throw your fear behind
And wonder at it all

Binding sorrow quickly fades
Eternal suffering dissipates
Like dirt in the wind
Truth was always here

Looking inward ceases to explore
Yearning for external bliss
Loosens another notch in the belt
Heaven tightens the slack

Following love's direction
Breed's a destiny unfolded
Trust in the truth devine
And let your spirit fly

Throw your cares to the wind
Embrace the moment
Space and time stop but to glance
At the mystery unveiled

Wonder at it all
Beauty is in the action of movement
But also in the bliss of patient waiting
Knowing that His promise is pure

Leave everything behind
But your desire to sacrifice
Your self indulging self
Truth is always kind

Hope is forever
Trust is the moment
Faith is the flower
Love is the answer
