

Joyful crazy mind
Now that I've found you again
Emerging from a Heavenly sign
That love conquers sin

Hope you're here to stay
Through all of life's trials
I thought that I might pray
That you grow sound for awhile

Joyful crazy mind
I know that there is never evil in the end
And through your hopefulness we'll find
A sincere tear for the fallen friend

Stand tall, shake off the shivers
Remember nothing will support fine
Faulty sand, the Rock shades the giver
And supports faded cracks in the line

Joyful crazy mind
Forever will you mend
Until Heaven loosens the binds
And delivers you with the help of a friend
