To Whom It May Concern:

Leonardo Biciunas recently presented two interactive concerts at the Schaumburg Township District Library. He entertained a total of 350 patrons.

The programs were imaginative, upbeat, and highly participatory. Children clearly enjoyed the concerts, evidenced by their laughter, dancing, and willingness to volunteer. Leonardo distributed instruments and props, involving children of all ages. He is a talented musician who related well to the audience. Children connected with song topics such as snow and birds. Following the concerts, I received positive feedback from parents.

I appreciated Leonardo's professional and pleasant demeanor. The scheduling process was efficient, and he provided me with references promptly. Leonardo demonstrated humility and a genuine appreciation for the opportunity to perform. He visited with admiring audience members after shows and answered questions politely.

I highly recommend Leonardo Biciunas as a quality performer to host at your facility. Please contact me to discuss my experience further.

Sincerely,

Allison Bies
