“Songs like ‘Bartenders’ and ‘Get Lucky’ recall the mournful appeal of Counting Crows at their best, and the melodies stay with you after only one listen, which is a good sign.”

- Josh Wardrop, TAB Newspapers, Boston

“I predict this band to be nationally known soon. They are that good.”

- Joe Condon, Owner, Radioalbany.com

“Great rock guitars with a sense of humor slipping in and a little fun funk, just when you were sure that could never be part of their sound. But the recordings are just a hint: following in the philosophy of The Who and others, Marwood really shows itself LIVE. Go see ‘em on stage!”

- Perry Persoff, DJ, 92.5 FM, The River, Boston

“Raw and passionate, Marwood is clearly a band on the rise – their unique brand of guitar-oriented pop has proven their appeal goes way beyond the local scene and we are confident they will become a national name someday.”

- Adam Simkin, Entertainment DC & Z104

“Spilling over with energy and hooks, ‘Souless’ is worthy of lots of airplay in the same slot you’d reserve for a Collective Soul tune. This is good stuff.”
