Didgeridoo A reason to blow hot air...

There are four basic elements that one must learn to get the full range of sounds out of the didgeridoo. Each element becomes the building block for the next technique. We will learn:

- 1) Drone Tone
- 2) Overtone
- 3) Sub-vocalizing
- 4) Circular Breathing

With these simple four steps and a little practice, you will be on your way to being the first Didgeridoo player on your block!

Drummer FAQ's

Do I need to own a drum?

Not at all. All drums are supplied during class time. We are also able to rent one to you so you can practice at home. You can also bring your own drum!

Do I need any drum experience?

No our Basic skills workshop has been created to introduce you to drumming and have you playing before the end of the first class.

Can I join classes after a session has started?

Once you have completed the Basic Skills workshop you are able to move into the Djembe 1 class that best suits your schedule. Basic Skills workshops are 8 weeks and they are held a number of times over each session.

What is the cost?

Our weekly classes are less than $13.50 per hour of class. It's a fantastic deal!

How do I register?

Easy - Choose the class the class that meets your schedule and drum level, and then call 403-217-6790. Payment can be made over the phone with credit card. You are also able to register in person or online at www.oneworlddrum.com.
