Music Training Day #2!

'Mass Appeal'

Saturday 22 September 2007

Guest Speaker: James Garrahy

Book in your team of Muso's and Vocalists today for this second awesome training opportunity hosted by the emmanuelworship band.

With a focus on the art of leading music at Mass, Pat Keady and the team of talented musicians, vocalists & songwriters of emmanuelworship will offer practical training, teaching, tips & tools for your parish or school's team in a hands-on workshop style.

Bring your instrument, fingers, drumsticks, voice, whatever it is you do! These days are an exciting time to connect with other young Catholic muso's from around Brisbane, learn effective tools to grow in your musical gifts, work as part of a team, and catch a common vision for bringing a new song and sound into our Church.

James Garrahy is the founder of emmanuelworship, the band whose original 'FireMass' setting was used recently at the Archdiocesan Youth Day Mass in Brisbane for the WYD Cross & Icon.

James has a dream to resource and empower the local church. He has worked with a variety of groups across Australia and New Zealand, facilitating dynamic sessions about Liturgy, Music and the Christian Journey. He is an energizing and engaging speaker who will encourage you in your life walk and empower you to take up the challenge of the new song in your local setting.

A prolific songwriter and worship leader, 'God Will Make a Way' and 'Angels All Around' are just two of James' compositions from emmanuelworship's recent album Revolution.

James currently teaches at St Augustines College, Springfield, where he continues to inspire students to bring a new sound and song to the Mass.
