

SUPERNOVAL

Supernal is an exciting and promising young rock band. Influenced by the Foo Fighters, Incubus and No Doubt, Supernal fits into the rock world, but with the unique edge of a female vocalist and songwriter. Mixing these attributes with well-crafted songs and emotionally charged lyrics, the band creates a musical entity that stands on its own. Overall, Supernal proves as a captivating band that really, honestly - ROCKS!

Supernal has developed an impressive history of touring in their young lives. They have put thousands of miles (or kilometres) on their van, travelling the continent from Vancouver, BC to New York, NY. Their touring history has included great opening spots, large festival appearances, as well as several van breakdowns in the middle of the night.

"Supernal is a breath of fresh air in the stank testosterone charged wasteland of rock radio."
