

The Dennis Family is no stranger to Southern Gospel music. We all have a background in this genre of music, it just took some time for us to come together as one group. Combined, there is almost 85 years of experience within The Dennis Family. Formed in 2005, we have had the opportunity to be apart of some wonderful events and have been fortunate enough to work with some of the finest people in the Southern Gospel industry today. In this short period of time, we have recorded 3 albums and have averaged about 35 dates a year. One the most rewarding things for us is to see lost souls won over for the Kingdom of God. Our goal when we started out was to be based around God and spreading His Word. A ministry is a special thing to be a part of, but when you can share all of this with your family, it makes it so much more fun. Christians should be able to have fun because if they can't have fun, then who will want to be one? The five individuals that make up The Dennis Family each bring something different to the group. Glenn Dennis sings the baritone part and shares the emcee work. Glenn's heart is as big as the ocean and it was his idea that brought this group together. Singing the alto/tenor part, Jackie Surles Dennis has been playing and singing Southern gospel music since the age of 12. Her husband, Doug Dennis sings the bass part. Though not a true bass, he never ceases to amaze people with what he can do night in and night out. Doug and Jackie's oldest son, Jason Dennis sings the lead part and shares the emcee work. He puts everything he has into each service and is a young man that has a burning desire to serve God and spread His word through song and testimony. Nicholas Dennis, Glenn's son, runs the sound for the group. He is such a key asset to this group for the work he does "behind the scenes." It is not often that you will find a young man that is willing to do so much for something to succeed, yet take so little credit. The Dennis Family has also been recognized at various singing conventions in North Carolina and Virginia. At the NC Annual State Singing Convention held in Benson each year, we have been awarded the following: (2005) Best Mixed Quartet, (2006) Best Mixed Quartet, (2007) Consolation Winners-2nd overall, (2008) Best Mixed Quartet and Best Family Group, and (2009) Best Mixed Quartet and Best Family Group. At the VA State Annual Singing Convention we were awarded as the Grand Champions in 2007. If you are looking for a group to come and minister for you and your congregation, please don't hesitate to contact us. We come on love offerings only and would love to come and share with you.
