

Wesley Hellingworth

Greetings Parents and Guardians,

We at With These Hands Mix Academy would first like to thank you for allowing us the honor of building relationship with your dynamic young adults. We are humbly requesting that you complete this questionnaire that will enable us to evaluate the effectiveness of our program. Our academy is a tool to reach a generation of young people on a level that they can understand. We have incorporated conflict resolution, diversity, team work, leadership and basic business skills in our curriculum. It is important for us to obtain feedback from the people who have made our mix academy a success. Thank you again for your support.

1. Do you believe our academy is making a positive difference in the attitude of your child?

Always Sometimes Never

2. Has stressing the importance of them doing well in school had a positive affect on them?

Always Sometimes Never

3. Have you noticed that your child is operating with more leadership qualities?

Always Sometimes Never

4. Does your child take our mix academy seriously?

Always Sometimes Never

5. Does your child take the opportunity to exercise practical application of the skills he/she is taught in our mix academy to the best of their ability? (Note: we do realize that our students do not have all their equipment yet but they all should be working with what they have!)

Always Sometimes Never

6. How often does your child study for school as well as the mix academy?

Always Sometimes Never

7. Does your child listen to various genre of music?

Always Sometimes Never

Comments: This is a very influential program for Wesley. He cares a great deal about it & takes it seriously.

His attitude toward school really depends on the rewards he is given for doing well. However, Wes has several
