To Whom It May Concern:

We the staff of Project Challenge, Inc are honored and proud to lend our full support to Claude Whitfield, CEO/Founder of With These Hands Mix Academy. With These Hands Mix Academy has been of great benefit to the youth that we serve and his instruction is in growing demand with our clients.

Mr. Whitfield has provided our youth an opportunity to express themselves through their musical talents and abilities. In addition, and in conjunction with ImaginOn, Mr. Whitfield has provided our youth with a safe haven where they can channel their energy in a positive and productive way while learning all of the essentials of music production.

Project Challenge, Inc appreciates all of Mr. Whitfield's efforts and we look forward to maintaining the wonderful relationship that we have established with Mr. Whitfield and the With These Hands Mix Academy.

Sincerely,

Jason Nicholson
